ON THE LINE

The last time these teams met at Bailey Field, both were playing for an NCAA bid. Today, a similar scenario awaits. If Union wins and Rochester defeats Hobart, Union wins the tie breaker and gets the league's automatic bid. If RPI wins and Rochester wins, the Yellow Jackets would go. If RPI wins and Hobart wins, the Engineers will represent the league in the NCAA playoffs. And if Hobart and Union are victorious, the Statesmen receive the automatic bid.

Thank you, Union seniors, with comments from Head Coach John Audino

Today marks the final regular season home game for 18 Union seniors. This season's seniors have a four year record in league play of 24-3 (89%), with two league championships and two NCAA playoff appearances. They take the field today with an opportunity at a third straight league title and NCAA playoff bid. Head Coach John Audino is proud of this great group of student-athletes, and offered his thoughts regarding their careers.

81 Corey Chase

Corey is a good receiver with great hands and speed. He can play special teams and has been a returner on punts and kicks. He has a year of eligibility left and could be a challenger for a spot next year as a starter. Corey can go deep with his speed and is a very hard worker.

72 Dustin Connelly

Dusty was a Pre season All-American and a two year starter at left tackle. He is a very good run blocker and excellent pass blocker and has started every game since his junior year. Dusty is a very good athlete who can protect the passer, and he has been an exellent leader.

10 Mike Daley

43 Vito Pellerito

Vito is an excellent player who has played inside and outside linebacker. He is particularly strong in pass defense. He is energetic and covers a lot of ground, and is a hard nosed player who has been a three starter. He also played some as a freshman. Vito has a lot of experience and has done a great job of leading our team.

He is also from Florida and teammates of Vito and Ed Speno. Andrew has been a very good captain and he does many things well as a blocker and a route runner.

22 Andrew Salemo

Andrew has been such an excellent team player who has been both a tailback and fullback for us. He is a good blocker and good inside runner and has been a very good and reliable running back each of the last two years. He continues to work with the players and lead on and off the field and has excellent instincts as a runner and blocker.

67 Andrew Salvo

70 Justin Schmeidel

Justin has been injured during his senior year, but he has played both on defense and offense. He has been a center, guard and tackle on offense and played some defensive line. He is a very good athlete who has a year of eligibility remaining. Justin is a solid player and leader for the group.

28 Pat Sheridan

Pat usually covers the opponents best player at wide receiver. He is a very good cover guy who will also play physical against the run and who is quite strong in our return game. He is a three year starter and is an outstanding athlete with his hands on the ball.

9 R.J. Simoni

R.J. converted to DB after his freshman year. He is a talented return man who can tackle and cover as a defensive back. He has made some fantastic plays and had been our fifth defensive back for two years before becoming a starter as a senior. R.J. has shown tremendous character.
